HIGH SCHOOL

Dear Parent/Carer

The English department has arranged a theatre trip for Year 7 students to see Billionaire Boy at The Bloomsbury Theatre in London. Based on the novel by David Walliams, Billionaire Boy is a witty comedy about a 12 year old boy called Joe who is "rich, really rich. He's got his own bowling alley, his own cinema, even his own butler who is also an orang-utan. He is the wealthiest twelve-year-old in the land. But there's just one thing he really needs: a friend." The Bloomsbury Theatre brings this novel to life through its magical performance filled with stirring music, adventure and magnificent artistry.

The trip is planned for Tuesday 17th December 2019. We will be travelling by coach and will be leaving the school at 11:00am to arrive at the theatre for a 1:30pm start. Students should return to Loughton by 5:30pm, depending on traffic.

The total cost of the trip is £21.00 per student, which is a discounted rate for school groups. This covers the price of the theatre and travel by coach. All payments must be made either by cheque or through ParentPay. Please contact Mrs Cleary on kcleary@rodingvalley.net if you need your ParentPay login.

We expect many students will want to take advantage of this wonderful opportunity. If the trip is oversubscribed we will draw names by lot and some students will be placed on a reserve list. Students and parents will be informed of the outcome and refunds made as appropriate.

This is a valuable enrichment experience which I hope your son / daughter can attend. If you wish to discuss this further, please do not hesitate to contact me at the school.

Yours faithfully
