Art & Design A Level (AQA)

Programme of Study:

Year 1

- First coursework unit (Sep-Feb)
 develops skills in independent research and ideas development.
 Broadly follows the same format as the GCSE method of working but with a higher expectation on a deeper level of understanding of concepts and a development in the ability to communicate an idea.
- End of unit timed practical test (Jan)
- Second coursework unit (Feb-Jul) follows the exam board set themes

Year 2

- Internally set coursework unit exploring the work of a specific artist of influence
- 3000 word essay
- End of unit timed practical test (Feb)
- Externally set exam unit. Preparing independent, creative, meaningful responses to a set theme (Feb-May)
- Final exam (15 hours May)

Assessment

- All coursework produced in the 2 year course is part of the qualification. Every piece of work is evidence towards one of the four assessment objectives
- Externally set exam is released in February with a 15 hour final exam taking place in May.

Entry Requirements

GCSE Grade 6 or above in Art and Design

Recommended Reading and Subject Enrichment

Collings, M (2000), This is Modern Art, Weidenfield and Nicholson.

Hughes, R (1980), The Shock of the New, BBC

Gombrich, E (1950), The Story of Art, Phaidon

Visiting galleries and exhibitions will be the most significant form of research for many students. We normally submit students' work and attend the National Students Art Exhibition at The Mall Galleries, London

Higher Education and Career Pathways

Studying art and design at this level helps to develop opportunities to pursue further studies at art colleges and universities. Britain, and especially London, is still a world leader in the creative industries such as architecture, advertising and product design (cars, fashion, interiors etc), all of which are highly paid careers.

Complimentary Subjects
